THE GRAND JURY CHARGES THAT:

On or about November 8, 2023, in the Northern District of Georgia and elsewhere, the defendant, SEAN PATRICK CIRILLO, consciously disregarding a substantial risk that his communication would be viewed as threatening violence, knowingly transmitted a communication in interstate and foreign commerce, from the State of Georgia to the District of Columbia, that contained a threat to injure U.S. Representative Marjorie Taylor Greene and others; specifically, CIRILLO called Congresswoman Taylor Greene's congressional office, spoke with her staffers, and made statements, which included, but were not limited to, the following: "I got a bead on her. Like a sniper rifle. A sniper rifle. And I'm gonna kill her next week. I'm gonna murder her;" "I'll kill you too if you want;" and "You're gonna die. Your family is gonna die."

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 875(c).
